

Business Transactions

MacDonald Illig's Business Transactions Group represents clients in all aspects of contractual, transactional and business planning matters. Public and private entities ranging from national and international corporations, general and limited partnerships, and closely held private firms, to insurance carriers, family owned businesses, sole proprietorships, and charitable organizations, rely on us to navigate through the complexities of an ever-changing marketplace. We provide sophisticated counseling and representation regarding corporate, tax, securities, regulatory, and many additional commercial matters.

On a daily basis, our attorneys are providing advice to startup organizations, guiding these companies through entity selection and organization, capital procurement, growth strategies, and establishing best practices. We are experienced in serving as general counsel to successful, established businesses, providing regulatory compliance analysis and defense and representing both targets and acquirers in mergers and acquisitions. A variety of corporations turn to us for representation in shareholder, member and partner relations; executive employment and compensation; debt and capital restructuring; contract negotiation and drafting; product licensing, distribution and marketing; dispute resolution; employment agreements and restrictive covenants; employee benefits; and taxation matters.

The Business Transactions Group and its clients have the benefit of drawing upon a wealth of legal resources from MacDonald Illig's many other distinguished business and litigation practices, including Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights, Commercial Litigation, Employment & Labor, Environmental Law, Trusts & Estates, Intellectual Property and Technology, Real Estate, and Tax. Working in collaboration, we offer efficient and effective counseling and advice to assist our clients in achieving their business objectives.
